

Creating a Productive Environment

New Directions in Management and Supervisory Training

What Is CAPE?

Creating a Productive Environment (CAPE) is a half-day workshop which assists the manager in setting the short and long-term direction of the team. CAPE focuses on the three critical management areas of providing direction, valuing diversity, and motivation.

Who Should Attend CAPE?

CR is beneficial for managers and supervisors at all levels of an organization who need to enhance the work environment of their teams.

Topic Areas Covered in CAPE

- ◆ Definition of People Management
- ◆ Providing Direction through vision, mission, objectives, & tasks
- ◆ Understanding the benefits of a diverse organization
- ◆ Valuing the diversity within the team
- ◆ Understanding personal management style
- ◆ Utilizing motivational theories

What Are the Outcomes of CAPE?

At the conclusion of CAPE, participants will be able to do the following:

- ◆ Understand the role of the manager in providing direction & motivation
- ◆ Demonstrate how to set direction for their team
- ◆ Know the potential barriers in place that limit productivity
- ◆ Understand how their personal management style affects productivity
